

Dear sisters and brothers,

The prayer for today's mass for the 10th Sunday of the Year is: "O God, from whom all good things come, grant that we, who call on you in our need, may at your prompting discern what is right, and by your guidance do it". All good things, and only good things, come from God, so too what is upright come forth from us when we both think and do what is upright. So, we pray for a union of mind and heart in the Spirit. In our relationship with God, we can discern what the Spirit is asking of us in every situation and allow God's grace to shape all our relationships and actions. In this way we participate in God's creative and salvific work. God continues to inspire people in our fallen world.

In today's Marcan Gospel we have an account of a complex episode in Jesus' ministry. His ministry is set within two sources of misunderstanding: one from his family, the other and from the scribes who are his chief critics. The family of Jesus think he is out of his mind because he is entering into the oppressive world of evil spirits- the sort of behaviour that today we understand as stemming from psychiatric issues rather than ancient world's understanding as demonic possession. Jesus liberates people from their afflictions rather than himself being tarnished or overwhelmed by them. Jesus is stronger than the spirits, the powers of the world or whatever afflicts suffering human persons. It is by the Holy Spirit, the very power of God, that he 'expels demons'. To question this is the doubt God's goodness and action in the world.

What is remarkable is that Jesus tells us 'all ... sins will be forgiven.' . Jesus has come to offer the universal forgiveness associated with the onset of the Kingdom (1:15; 2:5). I think we need to take this to heart. It is not helpful to wallow in guilt or shame rather than rejoicing in God's mercy and compassion that shines forth in his forgiveness of all sins. Sin is real but in God's mercy all shall be well. God's first and last word to us is love and forgiveness not judgment.

Home Again

It is good to be back in the parish after my long holiday. There were many experiences to be grateful for and many wonderful people that I met. I really enjoyed catching up with Carmelite classmates of 50 years ago. My time away has refreshed my spirits. Thanks to Frs John and Ad who worked so hard in my absence and thanks to all for your affection, prayers and good wishes.

Blessings, - Fr Greg

NEW PLANNED GIVING CAMPAIGN

Our planned giving membership campaign for 2024/25 begins this week as we ask each of you to please continue, or consider joining, this most important parish program. We are very blessed to have hundreds of committed parishioners who contribute their time and talents. Along with financial contributors, we are thankful for scores of volunteers whose efforts have combined to make our Morley parish known as one of the most welcoming parishes in the diocese. But as is the case for your own households, we do need a regular source of income to support our day-to-day running, as well as costs of repairs, maintenance, insurance and wages. In addition, your contributions support our Seminarians and retired and ailing Priests in the Archdiocese. If current members were in a position to increase contributions by $1 per week, it would result in an additional $16,000 for the year. We understand that times are still tough, though, so please do not feel obliged to increase your contribution if you are not in a position to do so.

For your convenience, program membership cards will be available on the bulletin stands to take & complete. On completion, please pop your card in any of the second collection bags, or pass on to any of our Priests, or return it to the office. Envelopes for the new financial year will be available from the weekend of June 22 & 23. If you are able, contributing electronically—either by direct debit or direct bank transfer—would assist the parish greatly.

Thank you, and may God bless you for your continuing support.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION 2024

Congratulations to our 64 parish children who received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday. May the Holy Spirit be with you to renew and strengthen you in your commitment to follow

Christ. Congratulations and best wishes from your parish family!

Winter Appeal
22/23 June
At All Masses

Dear parishioners, once again the Morley/Dianella St Vincent de Paul Conference (Vinnies) will hold their annual Winter Appeal at all Masses on the weekend of the 22/23 June. As in the past, you have generously contributed donations to help the poor, needy and homeless in our community to keep their families fed, clothed and warm during the cold winter months.

This year, many people are having difficulty with never ending demands imposed on their budgets. Whatever you can afford to give when attending Mass that weekend will be greatly appreciated. Envelopes will be placed in the pews and members will be collecting funds in the foyer after Mass. May God give his blessing to all in our
