God bless you and all your family

Dear sisters and brothers,

Today's Collect: O God, by whom we are redeemed and receive adoption, look graciously upon your beloved sons and daughters, that those who believe in Christ may receive true freedom and an everlasting inheritance. Today's prayer summarises Paul's understanding in the Letter to the Galatians of our salvation in Christ. We are God's beloved adopted children. May God bring us to the fullness of life in Christ and the Spirit, free from all sin and death.

The healing miracle of a deaf person in today's Gospel, (Mk 6:31-37) links us to our First Reading (Is 35:4-7) which describes the blessings of the messianic age. Jesus fulfils this hope. Out of sensitivity for wounded humanity Jesus performs the acts of healing expected of the Messiah privately. He does not want the crowds to conclude that he is a royal or political Messiah. His full identity will only be revealed on the cross. He came 'not to be served but to serve and give his life as a ransom for many' (10:45).

Jesus has come that all people may hear the word of life and come to transforming faith. May our ears be opened, and our tongues 'loosened' for our full participation in the community of faith. In our Second Reading (Jas 2: 1-5) James reminds us, there can't be special treatment and honour for those who are privileged. This links to Jesus' own words recorded in the Gospels and his mission to the poor and suffering of his time.

Safeguarding Sunday

Today, therefore, is a good time to reaffirm our commitment to creating a church that embodies trust, safety, inclusion, and respect for everyone, particularly our children and vulnerable adults. It is also a time to pray for those who have been abused. Perth Archdiocese acknowledges the lifelong trauma of abuse victims, survivors and their families, and continues to pray for their healing. We are committed to fostering a culture of safety and care for all children and adults.

The theme for National Child Protection Week 2024 is "Every child, in every community, needs a fair go" and "Every conversation matters". Conversations are powerful tools for keeping children and young people safe and well. Conversations can help us understand issues, craft solutions, value community knowledge, and social connections of children and young people.

We recognise and thank all those involved in safeguarding work in our parish, especially our safeguarding officers. Your dedication to making our church a safe and nurturing place is deeply appreciated. Children's activity booklets and colouring pages are available in the entrance to the church. It is best to complete them with your children or grandchildren.

—Blessings, Fr Greg

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY
8 SEPTEMBER 2024

Gracious God, you love and care for all of your children, especially the smallest and most vulnerable.

We entrust to you the lives of children and adults at risk who have been sexually abused, neglected or exploited and whose trust and innocence has been destroyed.

Help us to hear their cries of pain and to take responsibility for those whose lives have been broken. Help us to recognise the hurt felt by those wounded by abuse, and the failure to be heard.

We pray that with the help of your grace communities and families will find understanding and support,

You can find out more about the Church's work in this area at: <https://www.catholic.au/s/article/Safeguarding-Sunday-2024> so that now and in the future, their wounds may be healed and they may find lasting peace.

Let your grace and love fall gently now upon our children and adults at risk, giving them the inner strength, peace and resilience to seek out assistance when required.

Help us all to listen with open hearts, so that when children and adults at risk speak, they are truly heard.

We ask this prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever, Amen .

To come to possess all, desire to possess nothing.
To arrive at being all, desire to be nothing.
-St John of the Cross

A Carmelite Day Retreat with Fr Adalbert Imperial, OCD

"Spiritual Detachment as the Path to Ultimate Freedom: Teachings from St John of the Cross"

Come and join us for a Day Retreat with Fr Adalbert Imperial, OCD as he explores the importance of total detachment in the spiritual life. Fr Adalbert will draw upon the writings of the 16th Century Carmelite saint and poet, St John of the Cross, who is numbered among the greatest mystics and spiritual masters of the Catholic Tradition. For some, the figure, reputation, and writing of St John of the Cross can be intimidating, inaccessible, and somewhat esoteric, however the aim of the day is to invite retreatants to encounter this great saint and lover of God who teaches us a way of encountering the God who loves us more than we can ever imagine.

Date: Saturday 5 October 2024 from 9.30am — 3pm
Venue: St Catherine's House of Hospitality
113 Tyler Street, Tuart Hill 6060
Cost: $30 pp (includes morning tea and lunch)

RSVP by 1 October, 2024

Please Note: Registration Limit - 35 persons

All are welcome to join us.
The Pèré Laval Mass
Sunday 15 September at 3pm
Infant Jesus Church
Celebrant: Fr Jean-Noel Marie

Mass will be followed by the usual gourmet in the parish centre. The money raised from food will be sent to Mauritius for the needy—'Les Oeuvres du Pèré Laval' Pèré Laval is the patron saint of Mauritius.
