God bless you and all your family

Dear sisters and brothers,

Today's Collect Prayer: May your grace, O Lord, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works. Our prayer begins with the all-encompassing role of grace in the life of faith. We ask that God's grace always precede, inspire, uphold and bring to completion every moment of our lives and bear abundant fruit in our good works.

Today's readings centre on the demands of Christian discipleship. The First Reading (Wis 7:7-11) tells us that wisdom is preferable to wealth. The Gospel (Mk 10: 17-22) tells of a rich man who found Jesus' call to discipleship too radical. The Second Reading (Heb 4:12-13) tells how the word of God opens the depths of a person.

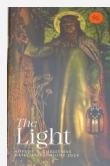

In the Gospel the man who comes to Jesus is clearly a sincere person with their life ahead of them. He has kept all the commandments. Jesus 'looked steadily at him and loved him' (v 21a). Jesus challenges him: 'You lack one thing: Go, sell what you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me' (v. 21b). The sense of being chosen and 'loved' by Jesus should enable the freedom that following Jesus requires.

For Jesus real security is to have 'wealth' not in an earthly bank, but to have 'treasure in heaven'. And the only way to invest that treasure is to give it to the poor. Jesus respects the man's freedom and lets him go but comments on the difficulty riches cause for entrance into the Kingdom of God. Jesus does not promise us an easy or comfortable life. Today's readings call to mind Dietrich Bonhoeffer's 1937 book The Cost of Discipleship in which he coined the term cheap grace to describe "the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance, baptism without church discipline. Communion without confession. Cheap grace is grace without discipleship, grace without the cross, grace without Jesus Christ." We are called to follow Jesus, walking together while trusting in him.

In which spirit, please pray for the success of the Synod on Synodality in Rome: We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in your name. With you alone to guide us, make yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in you our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of you, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

This World Mission Month, we invite you to extend your generosity to help the social services of the tiny Catholic church in Mongolia. Your support can make a significant difference to the lives of many, offering hope and tangible assistance.

Blessings, Fr Greg

Prayer for the Synod

As we embrace this Synodal Process, this prayer invites the Holy Spirit to be at work in us so that we may be a community and a people of grace. This prayer, in Latin (Adsumus), began each day of the Second Vatican Council.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.
